Reflection....

The readings for this weekend, speak to us about marriage and it reminds us that Jesus calls us to a vocation which is a particular “school of love.” If we co-operate with the grace of our vocation, we can grow in our ability to love like Jesus loves. Marriage is a very special school of love that challenges you to love each other ever more completely and selflessly. Marriage also invites us to expand our romantic love into family love. Every step of the way we are given opportunities to become more Christ-like through a sincere gift of self.

Parish Mission Prayer

O Jesus, help us to make you the centre of our lives.
Through the power of your Holy Spirit, help us to repent of the wrongs we have done, that we may be refreshed in spirit and renewed in hope.
Through that same Spirit, help us to be good to one another and to be faithful to you, as we live out our vocations: married, single, priest, religious - so that our homes and our parish may be filled with your presence and be powerful sources of your peace.
Amen.

Thank You

Dear Parishioners and Friends of the Parish

The PPC, PFC and I would like to take this opportunity to say Thank You to all of you for coming together and ensuring that the Parish Cultural Day materialized and served as a celebration of brotherhood and sisterhood rooted in love and joy. Thank you for your contribution and participation. I am most grateful for your support, kindness, generosity and love.

May the grace of the Lord be with you all. With appreciation and gratitude.
