Mission Sunday on the 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B

“For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

Mark 10:45

Pope Francis' Prayer Intentions for October 2024 For A Shared Mission

Let us pray that the Church continues to sustain a synodal lifestyle in every way, as a sign of co-responsibility, promoting the participation, communion and mission shared by priests, religious and laity.

Prayer Intentions

Please pray for the sick and those in need of prayers:

Denise Valente Gaynor Hawkins
Kenny Nkabinde Maria Valente
June Wentzel

Prayer for Students

*Our Father in Heaven,
we lift up our precious children
as they sit for their exams.
Grant them clarity, wisdom,
and focus. Fill them with confidence and peace.
Guide their minds and hands
as they recall what they have learned.
May your efforts be crowned with success in these exams.
Amen*

*Wishing all our students good luck
with their year-end exams.*

Reflection....

As Christians, we are challenged to resist the insidious attractions of fame and prestige and imitate the kind of servant leadership of Jesus, who gave “His life as a ransom for many” (Mark 10:45). It is in this way that we become great in God’s eyes. This kind of service does not need to be accompanied by extraordinary or spectacular gestures. When we take a look around, we will find multiple examples of it all around us. We are able to find it in our home, parish church and our society in which we live. This kind of service makes itself known in little unrecorded and unremembered acts of kindness and love.

Prayer of St. Francis

*Lord make me an instrument
of your peace,
Where there is hatred
let me sow love.
Where there is injury, pardon.
Where there is doubt, faith.
Where there is despair, hope.
Where there is darkness, light.
And where there is sadness, joy.
O divine master grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood as to understand;
To be loved as to love
For it is in giving that we receive;
in pardoning that we are
pardoned,
and in dying that we are born
to eternal life.
Amen*
